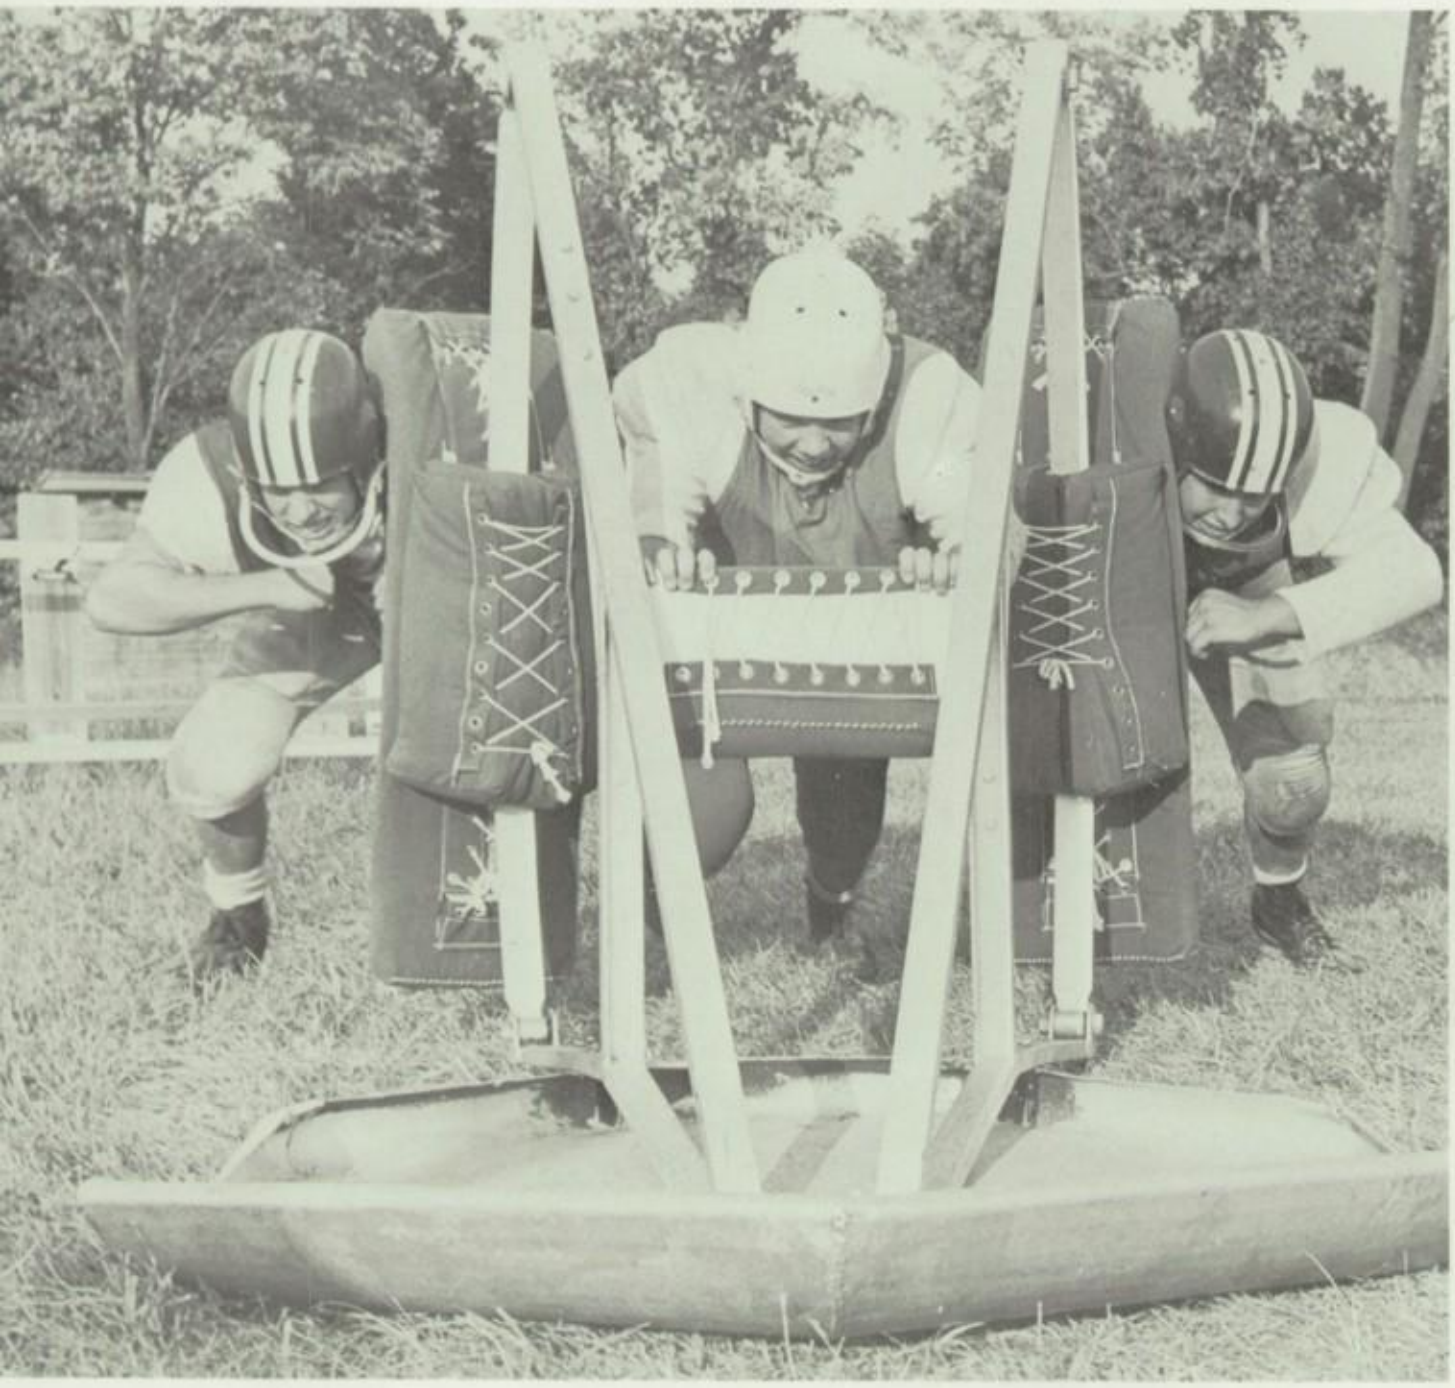
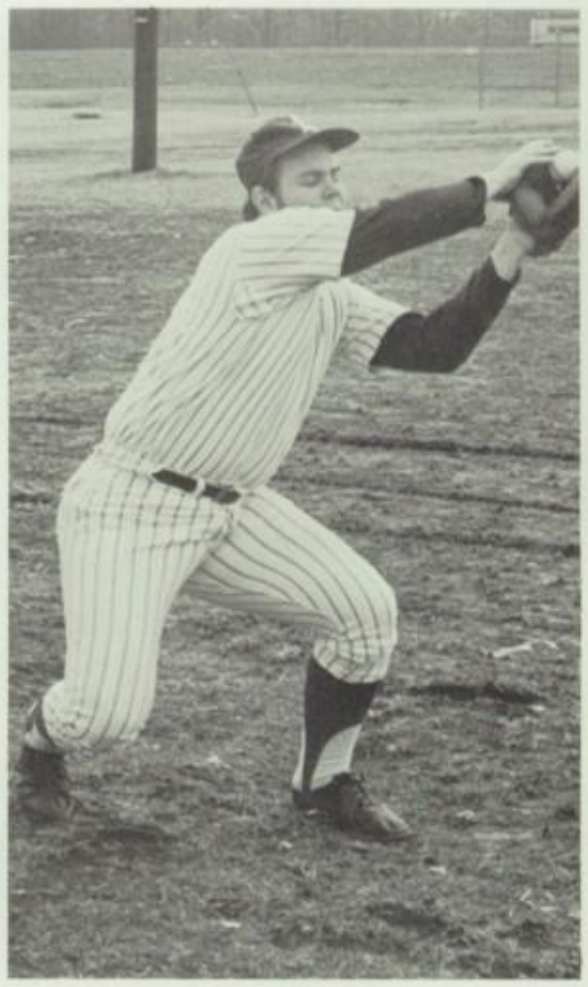
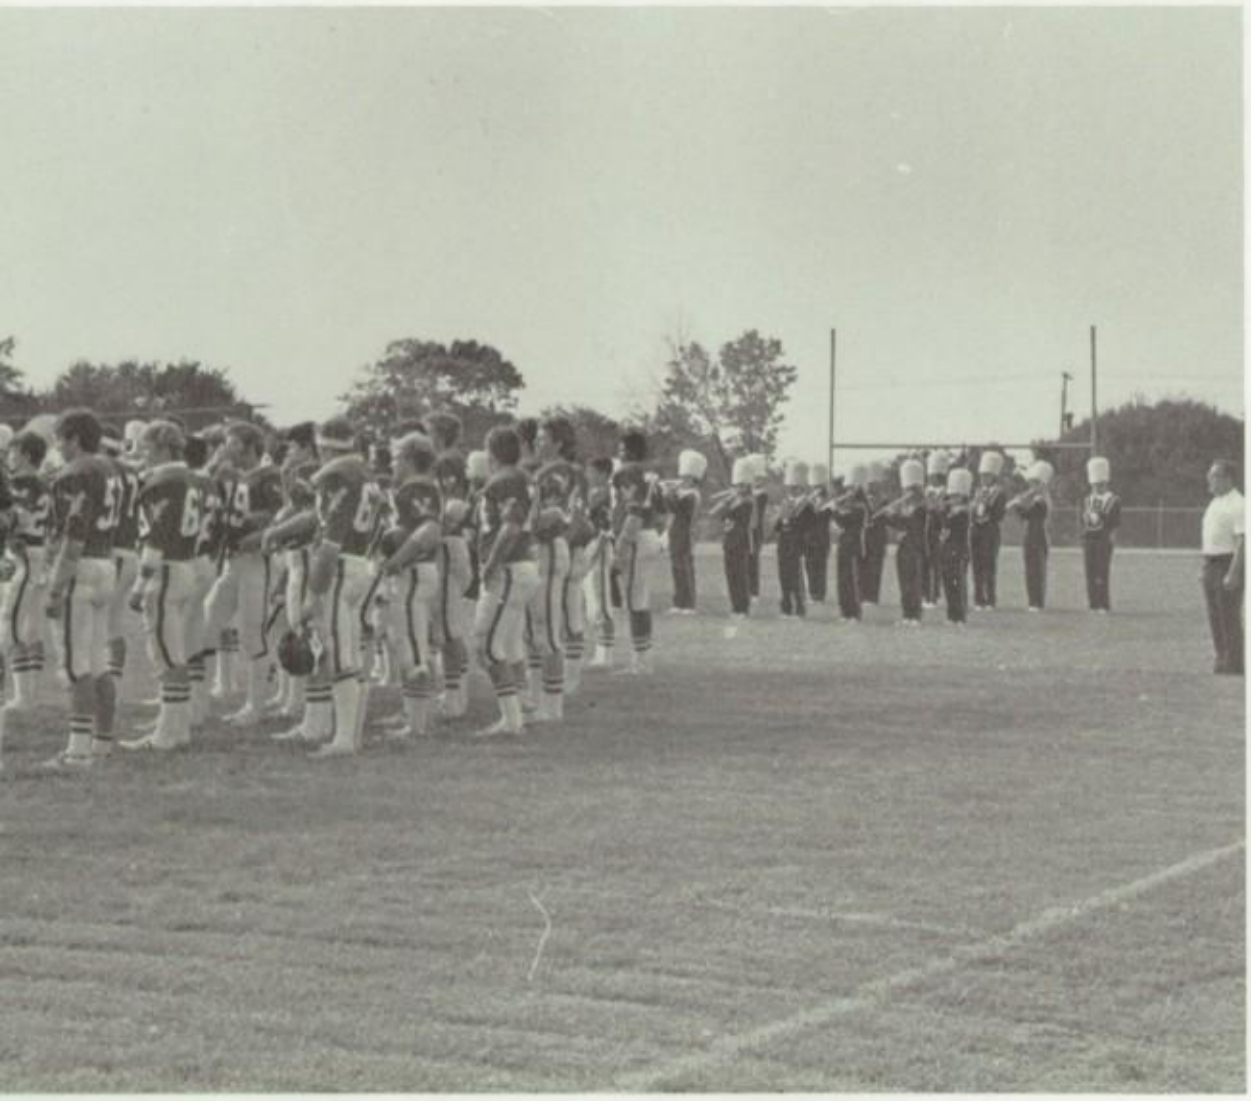
The 1973 Talon Is Dedicated to:

The Athlete





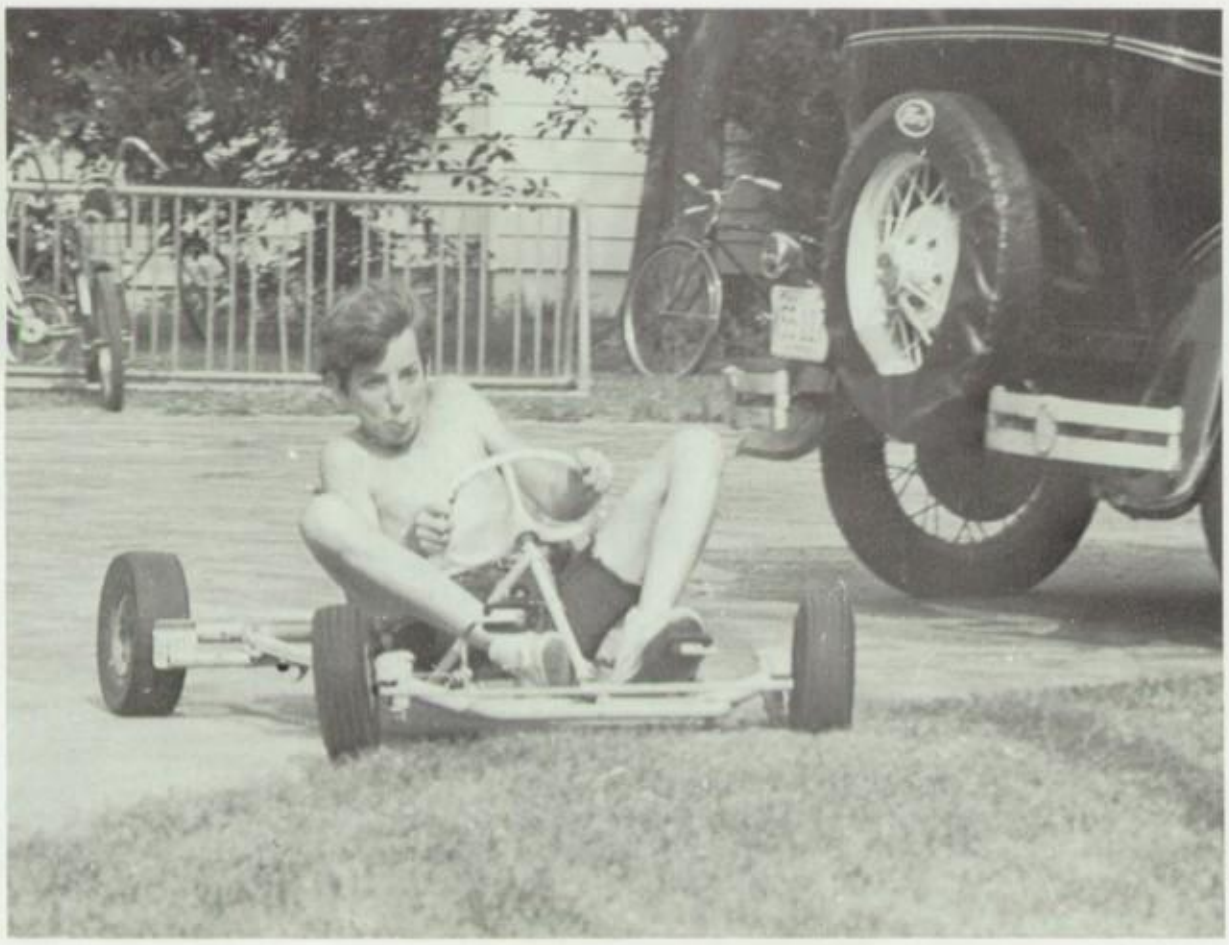
Through the ages sports and the idea of keeping physically fit have occupied the mind of man. Man has worked out many body contact games which require practice and dedication. The athlete is one who has trained in the sport in which he is the best. He is seldom recognized for the efforts he has put forth. The Olympics shows us the results of the years of practice put into the many sports of the athlete of different nations. In the true spirit of the Olympic Games, we the Talon Staff wish to dedicate the 1973 Talon to: The Athlete.



Senior Rings

So here we are
At the end of
The beginning of
A new world
Where we'll go
Forward or backwards
Never to return.

So when we are
Over our forty — three's
A tarnished ring will
Be preserved so we
Can picture past
High School memories.



Summer

We touch the welcomed smiles
Of our old school and summer friends
And realize that the summer
Wasn't all it could have been.

School Daze

In a world of books and buses,
Pencils, paper, hand and pen,
While in the rushing, crowded hallways
You can always meet a friend
Is the classroom world of school
Where there seems there is no end.

In a world of clubs and classes,
Teachers, bells to go and leave,
Where we learned much more than when
We once could only count to three
Is where we yield to endure
In order to achieve.

Activities

Up and down and down to up;
From seat to feet by scream
Enough to keep you up and
Vote proudly for your team.
But silence fills the air —
The Alma Mater sung
As the marching band softly
Rolls the noblest drum.

Government

How far is far
If all the stars
Stretch out forever:
And if our
Limit's the sky
Then why ask why
And find a Never?

How good is good
If all we should
Do what they say:
And if our
Border's just "them"
Then why ask who
And find no
Way?

EASTERN
HIGH SCHOOL

HISTORY OF EASTERN

In 1948 the Jefferson County Board had a problem of overcrowding of schools in the eastern part of the county. The county architect, Fred Harstern, was assigned to draw up plans for the new junior-senior high school.

The school was occupied in 1950 with Mr. Jack Dawson as the first principal of the new Eastern High School. Mr. John B. Lowe acted as the assistant principal. Mr. John Trapp took over as principal from 1955 to 1970. Mr. George Morrison, the assistant principal, succeeded Mr. Trapp as principal. Mr. Ralph Guess was chosen as Eastern's assistant principal in place of Mr. Morrison. Last year the enrollment of Eastern grew so that a second assistant principal was chosen, Mr. Tom Morgan.

The construction cost of Eastern totaled to approximately $1,637,000. It was built to accommodate 1,500 students. By the second year of its existence, the enrollment went over the limit.

Shop buildings were added on for additional space. The 2,040 students that occupy Eastern have filled it completely in the 1972-1973 school year. Every room in the building is being used every minute of the day.

A new football field was lighted in the fall of 1954 at a cost of $22,000, which gave Eastern the second best lighted field in the state at that time. Eastern erected its gymnasium in 1960, with the capacity of 2,900. The shower and dressing rooms were completed in the same year.

In the 1972-1973 school year, Eastern began a new curriculum, along with all the other Jefferson County Schools, the Elective Quarter Plan. This plan gave many more subjects to choose from, plus the choice of what quarters the student wants to attend. Instead of having credits for each course. Now the student has points and must achieve 54 points to graduate. Each quarter is made up of 58 to 60 days, with each quarter having a more specific program of each course to go into a more in depth study. With the new quarter system each student should have studies to fit his individual needs.

All poems in this section were written by Paul Stowell.

The 1973 season almost brought the end of the wrestling program at Eastern High School. We didn't lack wrestlers; we lacked a coach. So the administration began to look around and came up with a brilliant, young coach, Mr. Dennis McClish.

As a social studies teacher at Seneca, Coach McClish covers an approximate total of 80 miles driving from his home in Shively to Seneca, Eastern, and home again.

The wrestlers would like to express their sincere thanks for the hard work and effort put forth by Coach McClish.

Graduating senior wrestlers are veterans Bill Mulhall, Rick Ochsner, Charlie Hord and Jeff Cooper.

One Monday night you might have found yourself in Eastern's gym looking for a good boys' basketball game and suddenly you realized that you're either in the wrong gym or the boys' have acquired some pretty funny shapes. Well, it was neither one. It was the girls' basketball team playing one of its thrilling games.

Although their record might not have shown it, the girls had really improved. For along with winning two games, they also gained some very valuable experience for next year.

The girls put in a lot of work under the leadership of Miss Warner — their coach, Susan Metcalf and their captain — Lucy Lorenz. Eastern owes a lot of thanks to these girls for their determined effort and their fine representation of our school.

The up-coming varsity Baseball team should do surprisingly well. After becoming runners-up in the District last year and only losing two starting players the team is well on their way to a winning season. The team has ordered new uniforms which should bring a lift in spirit.

This year our Student Council proved true leadership when it obtained a jukebox for our cafeteria. Since then it has sponsored many Sock Hops after ball games. They also made Homecoming a success again this year. With the Senior class leading throughout the Christmas Caravan, this year's Caravan has been the most successful in our school's history. 76 families' Christmas was made happier. Maurice Sweeney has proved to be a true leader in all the activities.

Who would suspect these innocent faces of . . .

. . . being members of the class of '73!?

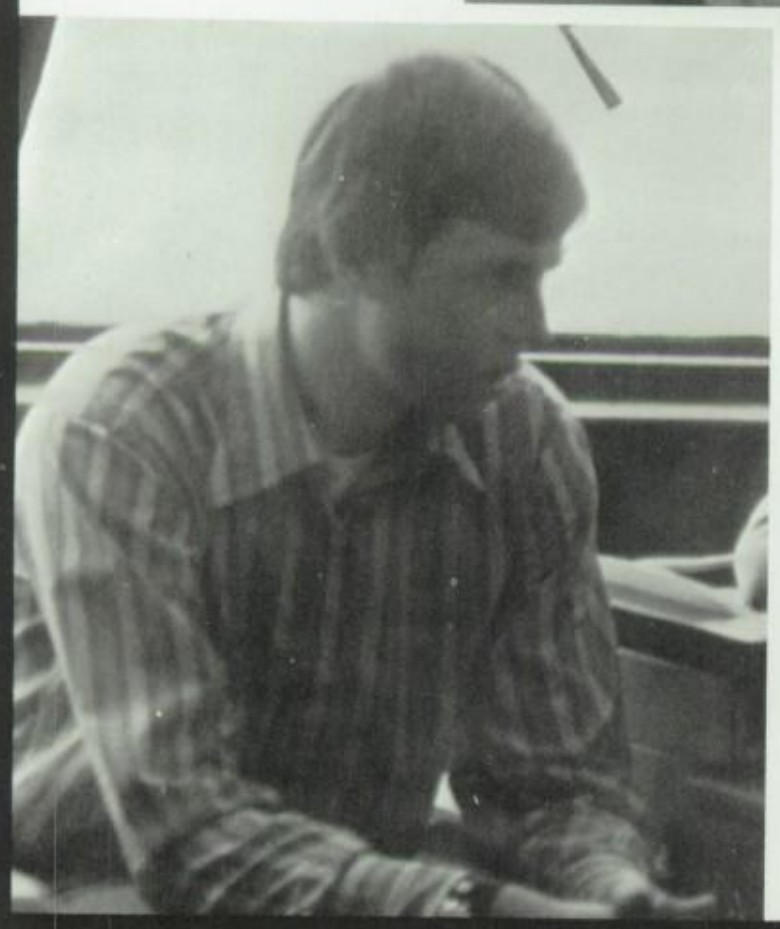
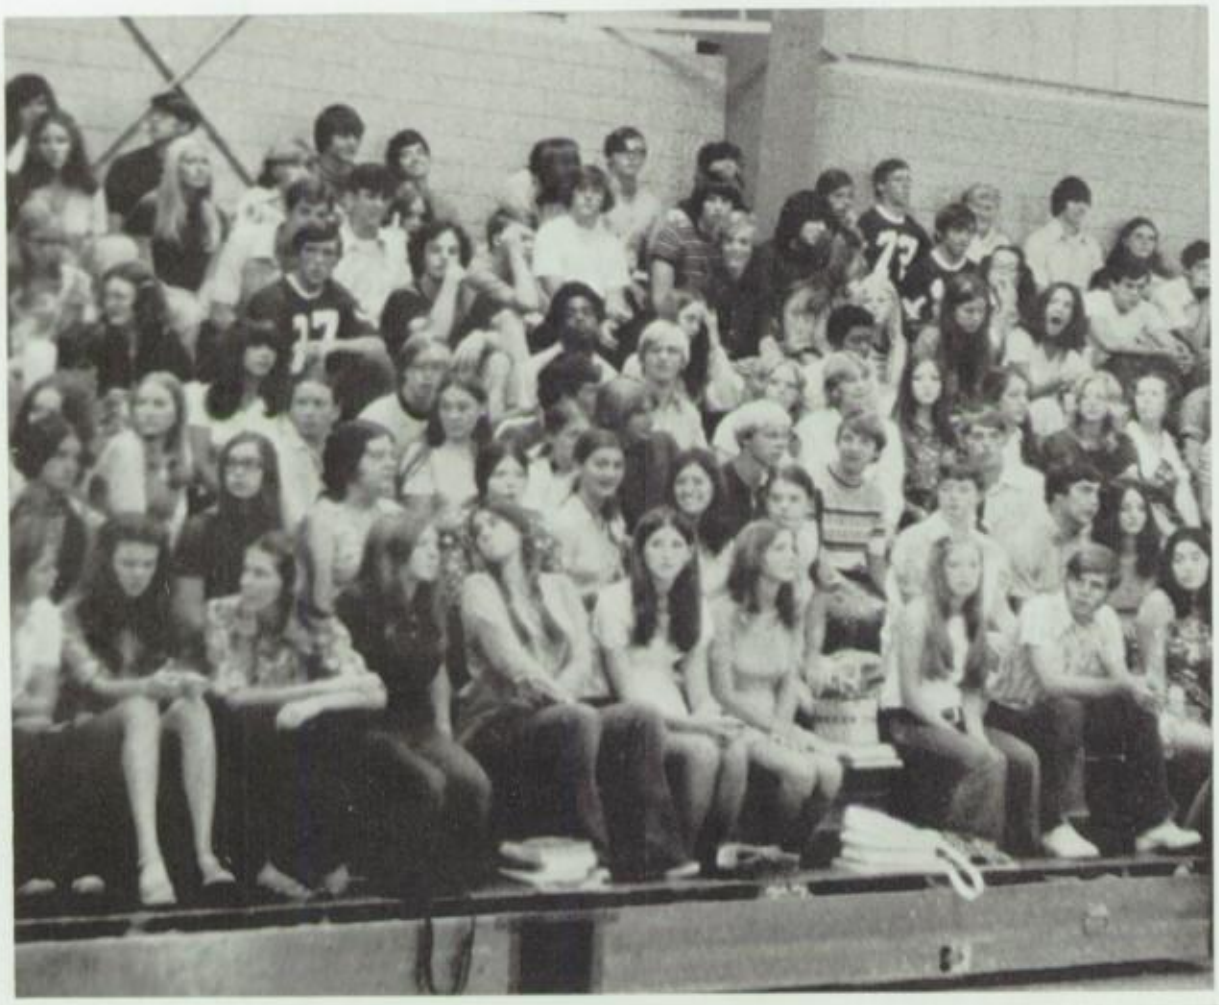
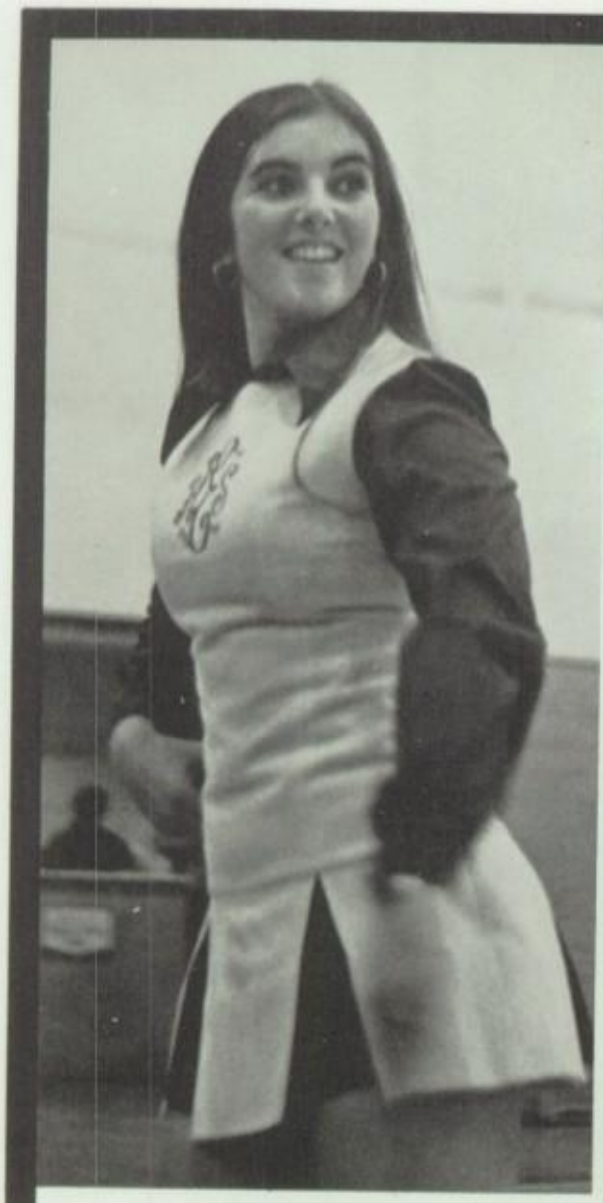
Experimentation was the essence of learning.



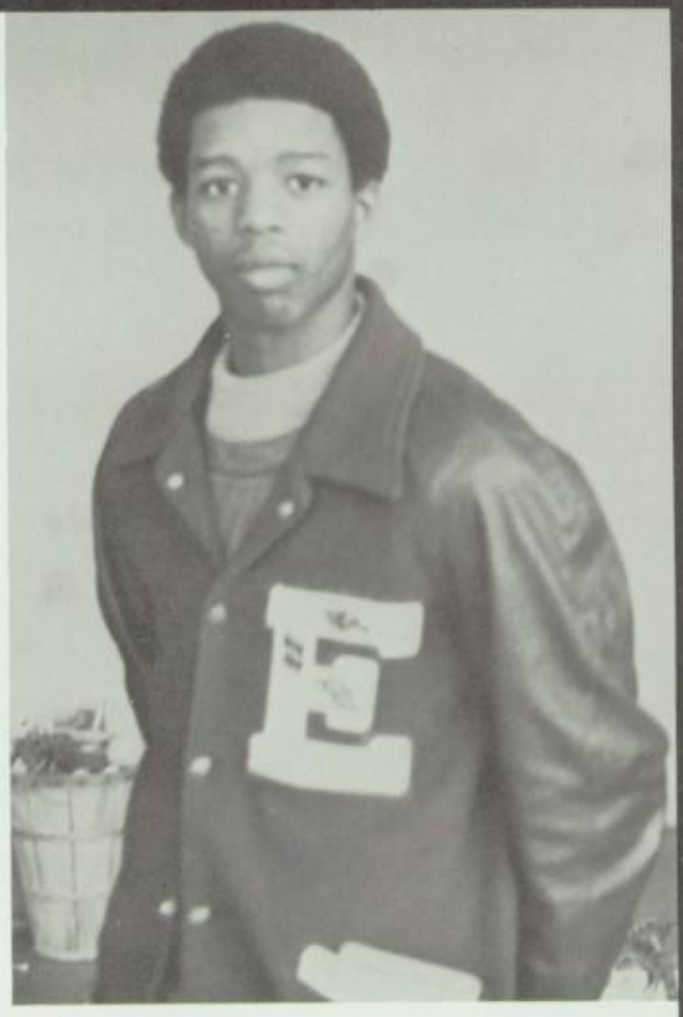
Mistakes occurred along with the fun as we became aware of our individual role in society. With our first Senior class meeting occasional voices were risen against Senior apathy. Election of officers, "Pay your dues!" and we were off!



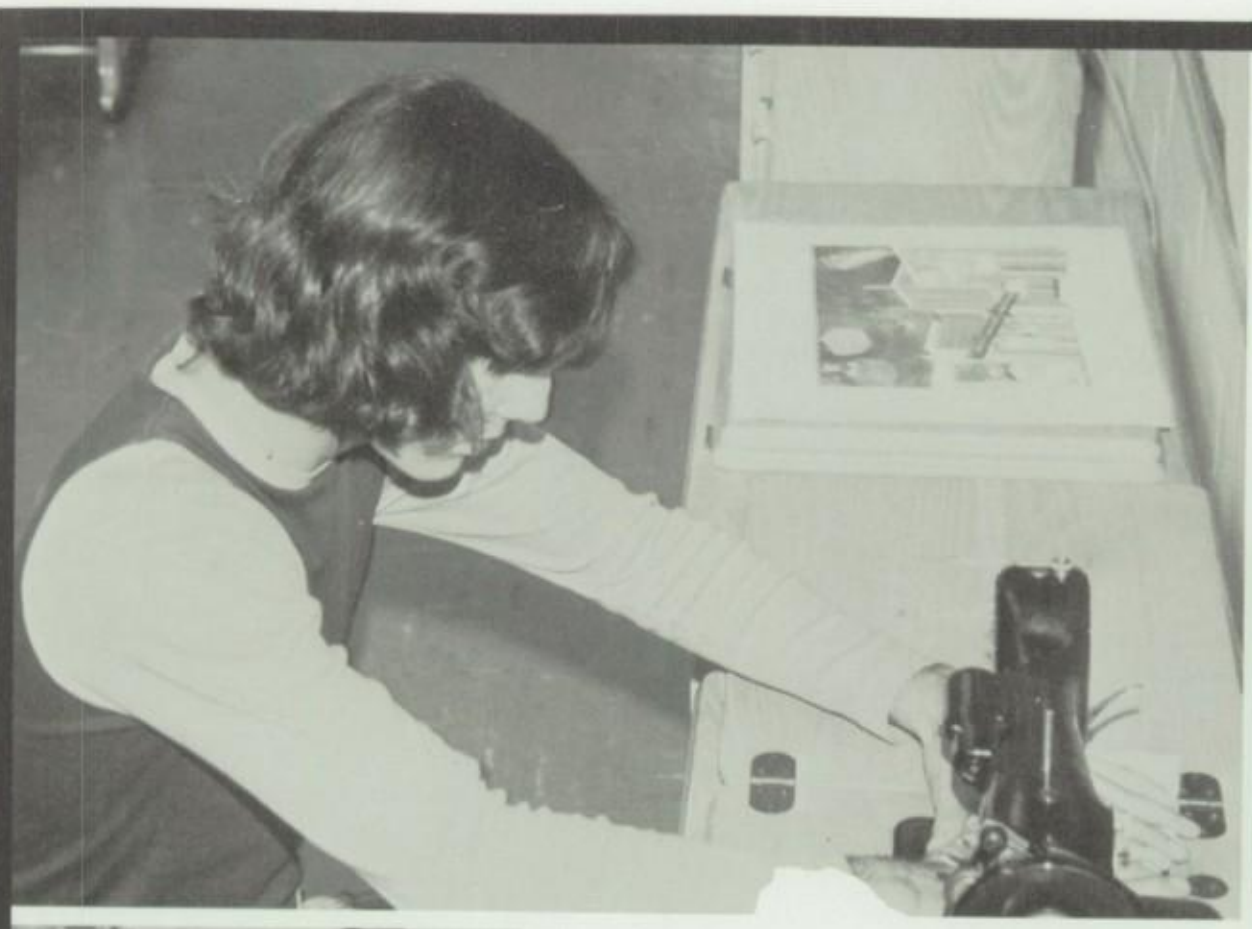
Individuals tried to accomplish athletic prowess. The powderpuff football team exhibited their skills for the lovely court, applauded by all.



With much effort Homecoming was accomplished. Spirit ribbons were sold. Mums, a band, and court were chosen as the decorations proclaimed the event.

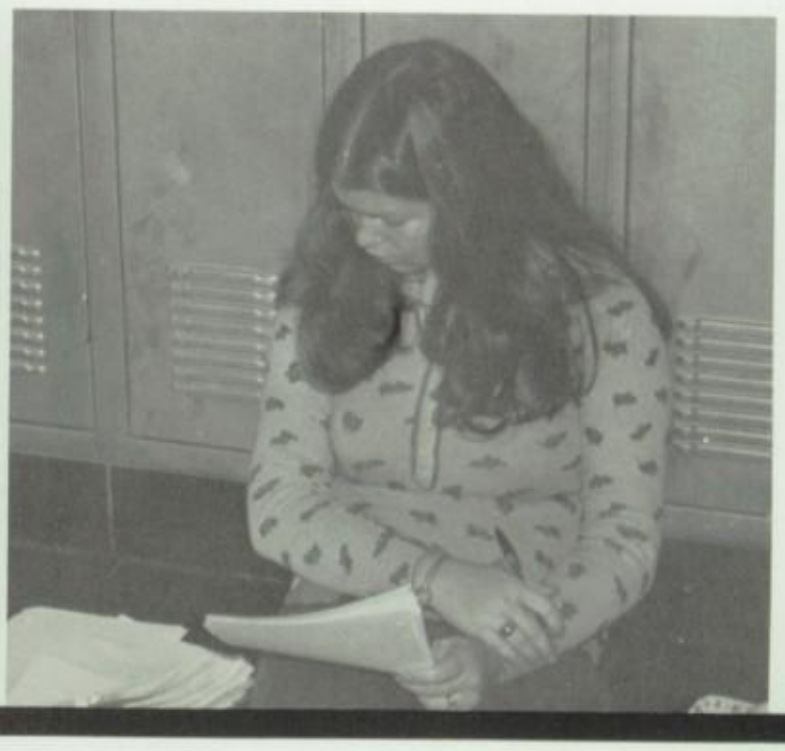


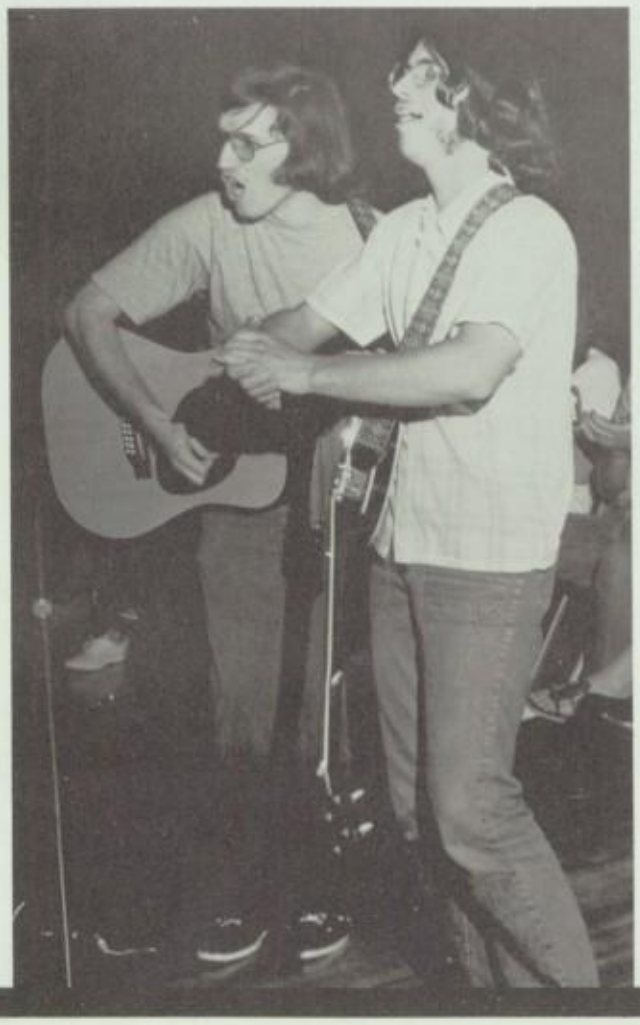
With a surprising effort, Seniors got it all together in order to win the Christmas Caravan Contest for the most food collected. Class spirit seemed to emerge as they participated in this yearly mission.



Meanwhile Seniors were frantically trying to graduate early and drowning in the quicksand of homework and tests, tests, Tests! Some had time to learn skills such as typing, cooking, sewing, or socializing. Some were left puzzled, while others discussed problems and world affairs at halftime. New faces mingled with old, adding a touch of spice to our existence at dear old

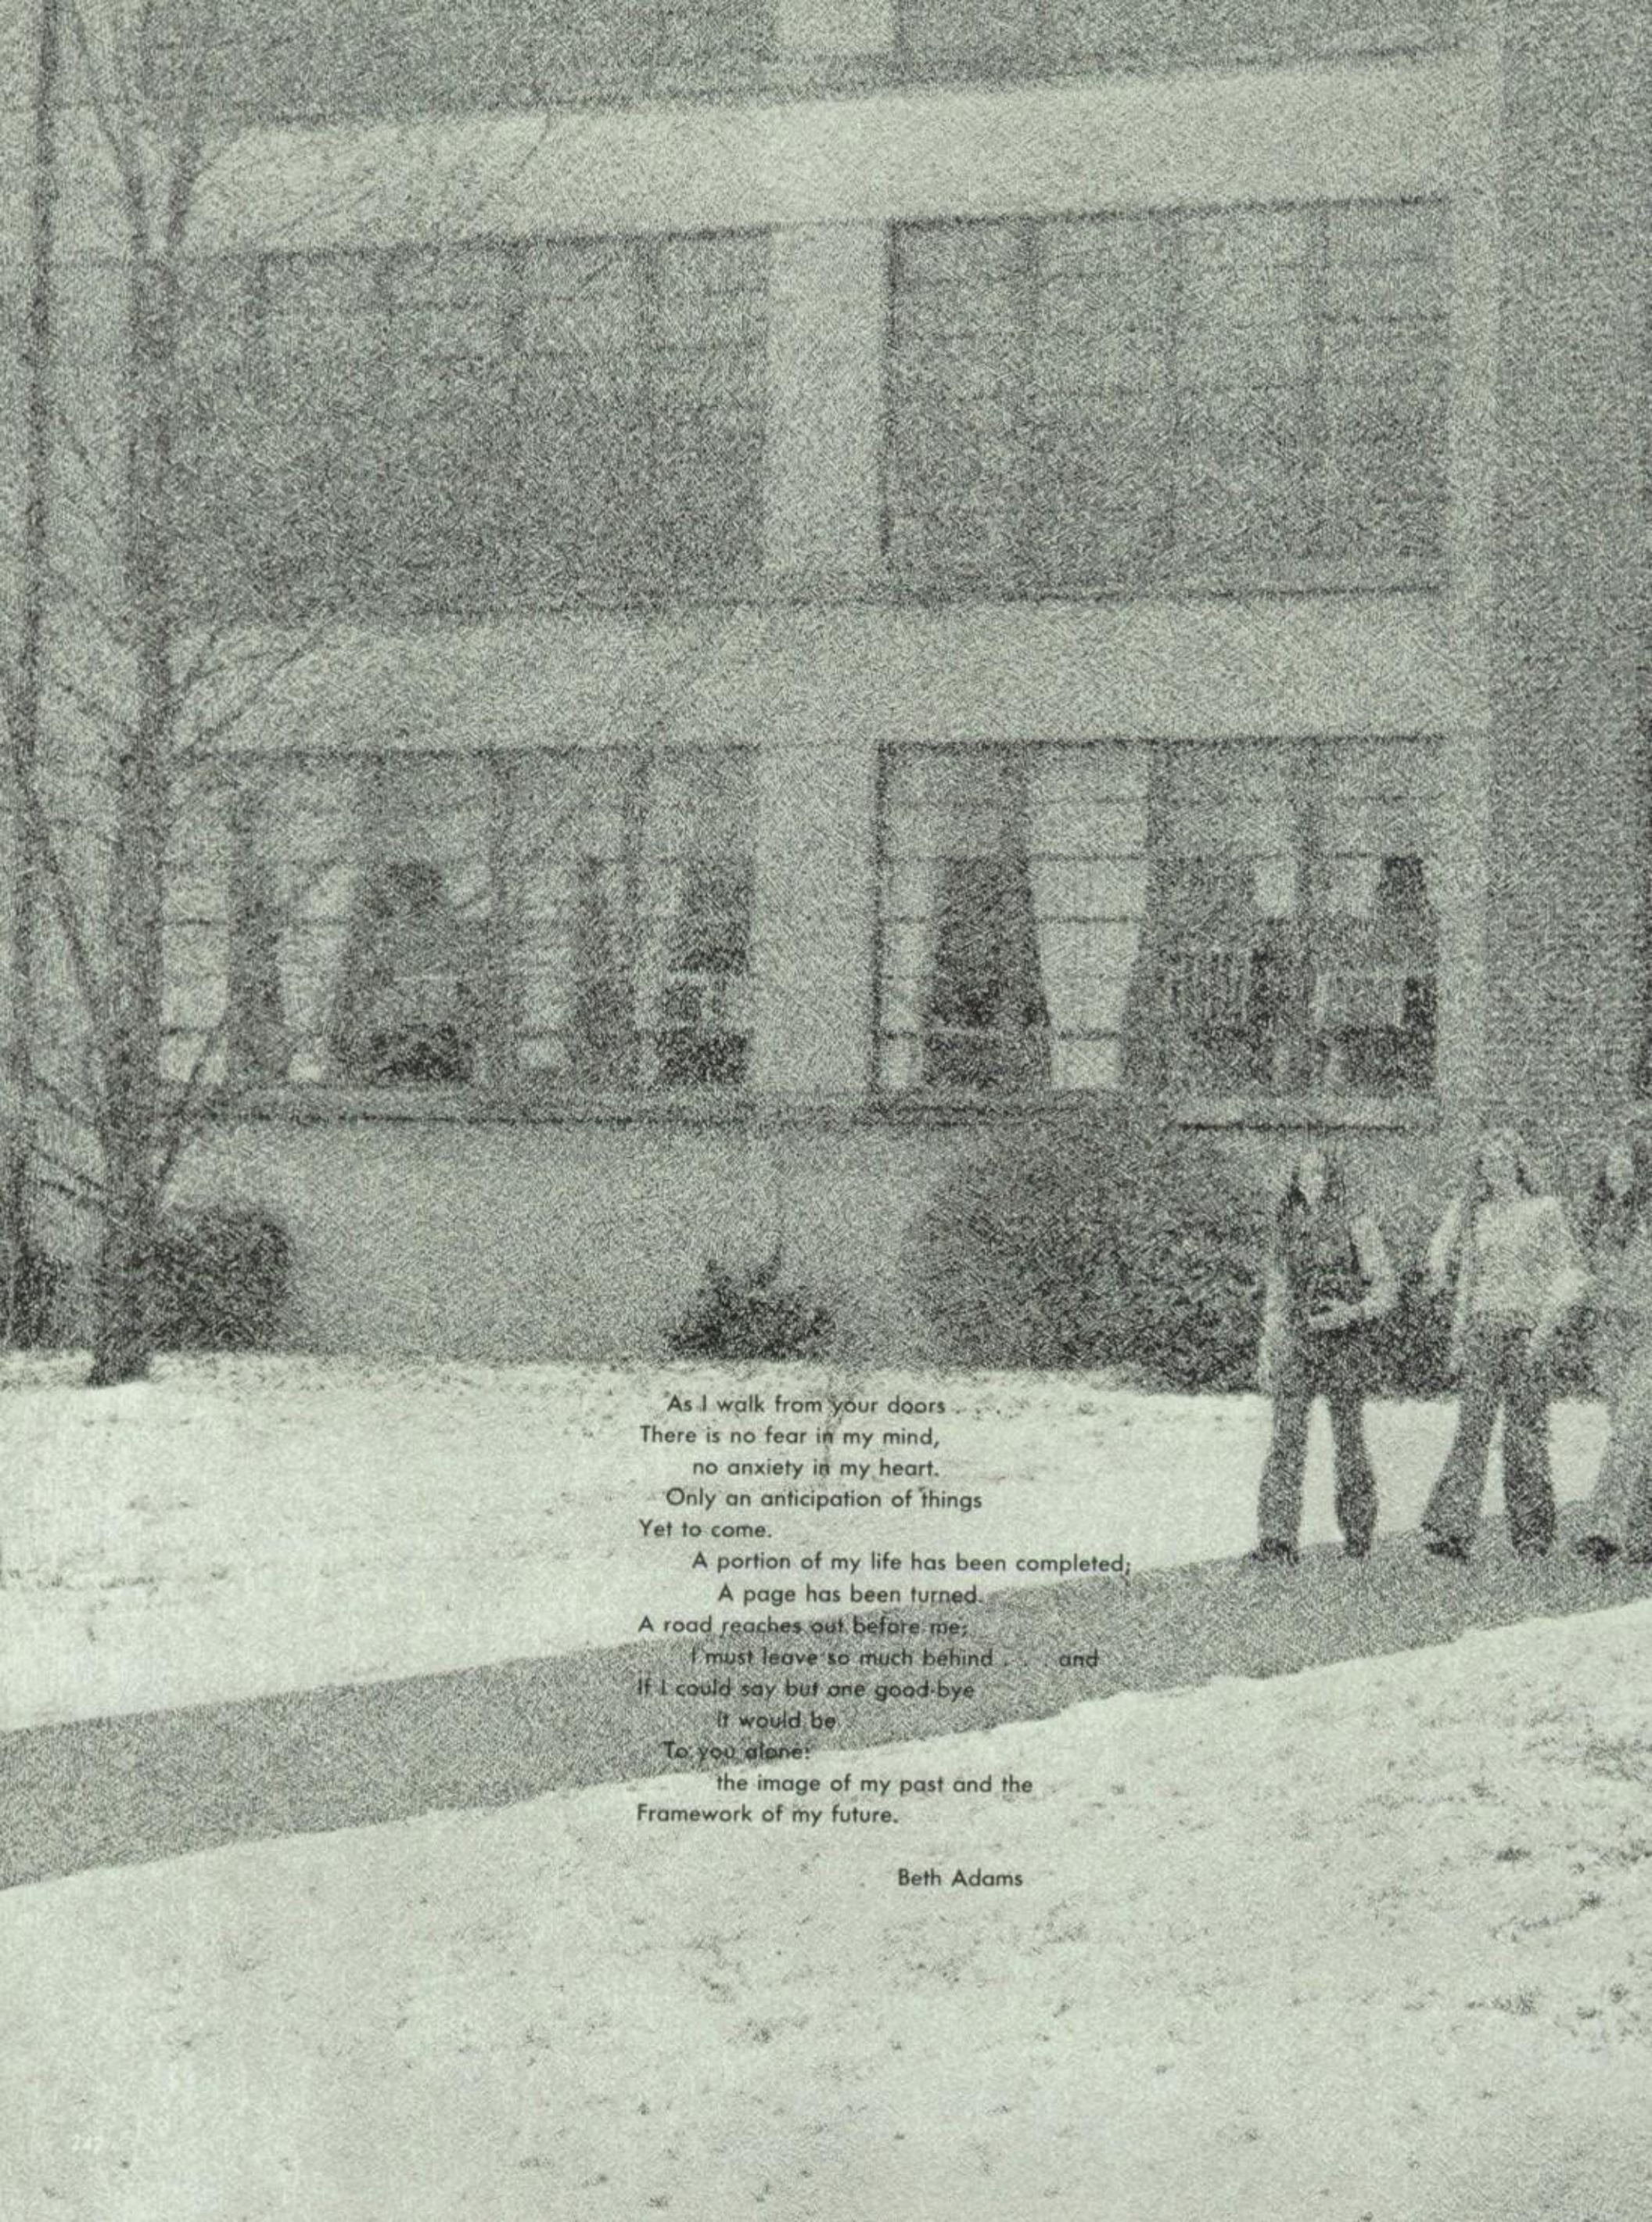
Eastern High School





Surpassing all interests, the countdown continued until graduation would deplete the class. Realizing the finality of graduation, a spark of anticipation flickered as the last weeks were uproariously spent.

And so they marched ever onward . . .



As I walk from your doors . . .
There is no fear in my mind,
no anxiety in my heart.
Only an anticipation of things
Yet to come.
A portion of my life has been completed;
A page has been turned.
A road reaches out before me;
I must leave so much behind . . . and
If I could say but one good-bye
It would be
To you alone:
the image of my past and the Framework of my future.
